Lonesome Duck Ranch & Resort is your vacation headquarters for premium trophy trout fly fishing, birdwatching, corporate retreats, visits to Crater Lake National Park, the Klamath Basin Wildlife Refuges, and so much more! It is the ideal Oregon resort for the fly fishing angler, naturalist, bird watcher, outdoor enthusiast and photographer.

Lonesome Duck Ranch & Resort is tucked away in southern Oregon, just north of Klamath Falls on one of the finest wild trout river in the US...Oregon's Williamson River, which produces some of the largest wild trout in the country, and is less than an hour from Crater Lake National Park.

The resort is nestled along a private 2.5 mile stretch on the Williamson River, Lonesome Duck Ranch and Resort offers two bed and breakfast accommodations and three beautiful vacation guest houses (two of which are hand-hewn log homes) for those looking for the perfect place to fly fish, vacation, corporate retreat or just relax and unwind.

The possibilities are endless...in addition to fly fishing, birdwatching, corporate retreats, family reunions, and nature photography. Hike, bike, canoe, kayak, visit nearby Crater Lake National Park or any of the seven wildlife refuges in the Klamath Basin area.

Guest Accommodations

Arrowhead Cottage

This is an original ranch house that has been totally renovated. It has a massive stone fireplace featuring the ranch brand and other artifacts. This cottage has two bedrooms, one bath, a dining room, living room, screened porch, and fully equipped kitchen. The large covered porch is the ideal place to relax, enjoy a glass of wine and watch the sunset melt into the river.

Rivers Edge

Rivers Edge: Watch the Williamson roll by from every room in this spacious 1500 sq. ft. log home. This comfortable home has two bedrooms and a loft, two full bathrooms, living room with a wood stove, dining room, kitchen and a large covered porch overlooking the lawn. It also has an irresistible hammock, and the river.

Guest Accommodations

Eagles Nest

This log home has the same floor plan as the Rivers Edge cabin. The large front porch overlooks a pond and meadow with majestic views of the mountains. The perfect spot for birdwatching. Experience the rustic beauty of our hand-hewn log homes. A short walk from Eagles Nest takes you to an old wagon crossing on the Williamson – one of the best wading opportunities on the river!

Bed and Breakfast

There are two bed and breakfast accommodations. Amenities include private baths, air conditioning, alarm clock, board games, ceiling fans, coffee/tea facilities and in-room internet. A Full breakfast is included with room rate. A full breakfast is served in the Breakfast/dining area from: 7-8:30am. Special meals available: on request.
